Under rules and regulations adopted by the department interest and penalties collected from employers under the provisions of this act [and fees incident to appeals as provided in Section five hundred two] may be paid into the Special Administration Fund. Such rules and regulations may provide for determining in any manner which payments of interest and penalties are to be paid into the Special Administration Fund and which payments of interest and penalties are to be paid into the Unemployment Compensation Fund. There shall also be deposited in the Special Administration Fund moneys as provided in subsection (b) of section two hundred one of this act. The moneys in this fund shall be used for the payment of costs of administration which are found not to have been properly and validly chargeable against Federal grants or other funds received for or in the administration fund and also for the purposes authorized in subsection (b) of section two hundred one of this act. Said moneys shall not be expended or available for expenditure in any manner which would permit their substitution for or a corresponding reduction in Federal funds which would in the absence of said moneys be available to finance expenditures for the administration of this act. Nothing in this section shall prevent said moneys from being used as a revolving fund to cover expenditures necessary and proper under the law for which Federal funds have been duly requested but not yet received subject to the charging of such expenditures against such funds when received. The State Treasurer shall make payment of obligations from the Special Administration Fund as herein provided upon requisition of the secretary and certification by him that no funds are available or can properly be used to finance such expenditures. The moneys in this fund are hereby specifically made available to replace any moneys received pursuant to section three hundred and two of the Federal Social Security Act as amended which because of any action or contingency have been lost or have been expended for purposes other than or in amounts in excess of those necessary for the proper administration of this act and are available for such replacement whether or not such moneys were expended or the obligations covering such expenditures were incurred prior or subsequent to the enactment of this amendment. The moneys in this fund shall be continuously available for expenditure in accordance with the provisions of this section and shall not lapse at any time or be transferred to any other fund except as herein provided and as provided under [sections] section three hundred eleven [and five hundred two] wherein an amount equal to any refund or credit of interest or penalties shall be transferred from the Special Administration Fund to the Unemployment Compensation Fund.

Any individual claiming compensation in any proceeding before the department the board or referee may be represented by counsel or other duly authorized agent but no such counsel or agent shall either charge or receive any greater fee for such services than is approved by the board. Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or be imprisoned for not more than six months or both.

Section 21 Section eight hundred one of said act as last amended by the act approved the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1186) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 801 False Statements and Representations to Obtain or Increase Compensation. Section 22 Section eight hundred four of said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1738) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 804 Recovery and Recoupment of Compensation. Any person who by reason of his fault has received any sum as compensation under this act to which he was not entitled shall be liable to repay to the Unemployment Compensation Fund to the credit of the Compensation Account a sum equal to the amount so received by him. Such sum shall be collectible (a) in the manner provided in this act for the collection of past due contributions or (b) by deduction from any future compensation payable to the claimant under this act. Provided that no administrative or legal proceedings for the collection of such sum shall be instituted after the expiration of six years following the end of the benefit year with respect to which such sum was paid.

Any person who other than by reason of his fault has received with respect to a benefit year any sum as compensation under this act to which he was not entitled shall not be liable to repay such sum but shall be liable to have such sum deducted from any future compensation payable to him with respect to such benefit year or the one-year period immediately following such benefit year Provided however That no recoupment from future compensation shall be had if such recoupment would be inequitable and unconscionable

In determining whether or not recoupment from future compensation would be inequitable or unconscionable the department shall consider all of the circumstances surrounding the payment and receipt of the compensation to which the claimant was not entitled including the cause of the overpayment and the claimant's good faith Provided however That the claimant's financial worth shall not be considered

The claimant and other affected parties shall be notified in writing of the department's determination to deduct any sum from future compensation under this section and such determination shall be subject to appeal in the manner provided in this act for appeals from determinations of compensation

Section 25 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 26 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall apply in the determination of the rates of contributions for the calendar year one thousand nine hundred fifty-one and thereafter

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, this point has not been brought out in the discussion of amendments on the floor at yesterday's session so I just want to make a brief statement.

Incorporated within the provisions of House Bill 1480 are several very minimum benefits to the unfortunate unemployed person in the state of Pennsylvania, and at the same time a schedule is set up to render a saving of $130 million to the corporations in the state of Pennsylvania.

I say to you, you are giving a little and taking a lot and therefore, Mr. Speaker, I feel that it is a disgrace to the people of Pennsylvania when we force down legislation in this manner upon them.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to quibble with the gentleman from Westmoreland on wording. I want to point out though that through the amendments to the contribution tables which are important in House Bill 1480, I certainly believe it is a misnomer to say that they provide for a savings of $130 million to the employers of Pennsylvania.

My reason for saying that is simply this. The money which will not go into the fund because of these amendments certainly cannot be classified as a savings when we consider that the reason for the amendment is to cure and to relieve the employers from inequities and unjustifiable increases in their rates which they have experienced since the first of this year. That is the only purpose of those amendments.

In further reply to the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, in his remarks that even in House Bill 1480 the employee was getting a very, very small bit of benefit, I would only like to point out this very pertinent and material point. With the maximum benefit of $30, which is now or will be the benefit in Pennsylvania under this bill, there is no other state in the union that exceeds that maximum benefit. There are only seven other states in the Union which equal it. All others are less than $30 for the weekly benefit. By extending the duration of the benefit to 26 weeks there is no state in the Union which has a longer duration.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, for the purpose of the record I want to make this observation.

The Unemployment Compensation Act was placed upon the statute books of the Commonwealth as a social measure by the Democratic administration in 1937.

This was intended solely to aid the unemployed and was set up in such a manner that it would not injure industry in the amount of contribution that they made to the fund.

Certainly you can agree with me that industry in the state of Pennsylvania has not been injured by the amount of contributions that they have placed into the fund.

The record of the profits of the corporations in the state would bear out that statement. Profits are greater than they have ever been with the contribution that they have been giving injuring them none whatsoever.

I want the record to show, Mr. Speaker, that the rate schedule did not injure anyone, and if we were to do anything in this bill we should give further measures of relief to the unemployed workers.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I would only say this in reply. It is true that the theory behind the unemployment compensation law is to provide a fund for the benefit of those who are unemployed and the money for that fund is contributed or given by the employer, and by the same token then the reason for increased contributions, for the justification for increased contributions by employers, should be governed by unemployment. That is not the thing that governed the increase, the primary factor that governed the increase, was the terrific increase in employers' contributions this year.

The thing that caused it was increased payrolls throughout the entire state of Pennsylvania, and it certainly seems to me a ridiculous situation when employment is such as it is now and payrolls are at the top level as they are now that the employer should be penalized by increased rates of contributions. To overcome that inequity and that injustice is the purpose behind the amendments to the contribution tables in House Bill 1480.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I hate to take up the time of the House in debating this question, but the gentlemen on the other side well knows that the question that we are debating here is an insurance question to a great extent. We realize that certain amendments have been made in unemployment compensation such as merit rating, and I have continually stood here and told you that I disagree with the merit rating system.

It is an insurance proposition. You will never be able to liberalize the benefits of the funds unless you create the revenue to increase those benefits. If you move in the direction that merit rating does that keeps the fund at a certain level and gives benefits to those who keep their employees working over the benefits to the poor employer that through no fault of his own has to lay people off.

I have explained to you in this House that the individual person working in an industrial plant where they have their own insurance system, where they are paid if they are sick, that the individual workman finds no fault with paying into that fund and never receiving anything as long as he is not sick.

To my mind those are the questions, those are the reasons why we cannot liberalize the benefits of the different funds that we are now talking about. When you do, then we will be able to pay the greater benefits that we should pay under the standard of living of today.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1555, as follows:

An Act prohibiting the placement or acceptance for placement with any advertising media of advertisements for acquaintanceship with other stating or indicating the purpose or likely result of matrimony prohibiting the commercial conduct of matrimonial agencies and services and prescribing penalties.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1 Any person who shall place or attempt to place or accept for placement with any advertising media whether of general or limited circulation any advertisement which solicits or offers acquaintanceship with another and which states or indicates that matrimony is the object of such acquaintanceship or is likely to ensue as a result of such acquaintanceship shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to undergo imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year or to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or both.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GEER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Greenwood.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Wyoming, Mr. Greenwood, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GREENWOOD. Mr. Speaker, I shall if he does not make it embarrassing.

Mr. GEER. Mr. Speaker, is the intention of this bill, or would this bill prohibit such things as dating bureaus and things like that at colleges?

Mr. GREENWOOD. I did not understand the question, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GEER. Would this bill prohibit dating bureaus and organizations that arrange meetings of young people such as they have at colleges and in college towns where a fee might be charged and an advertisement might be run in the college paper?

Mr. GREENWOOD. Mr. Speaker, unless they advertise for pay.

Mr. GEER. If pay is not mentioned in the ad is it the gentleman's opinion that there would be no prohibition against mentioning matrimony?

Mr. GREENWOOD. In college papers?

Mr. GEER. In many papers. Does this bill not prohibit advertising for matrimony, for matrimonial purposes, that is object matrimony?

Mr. GREENWOOD. That is right.

Mr. GEER. Would it prohibit dating bureaus or anything like that so long as it did not mention matrimony?

Mr. GREENWOOD. The gentleman seems to be more familiar with these bureaus than I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GEER. At least Mr. Speaker, I am not mad at them.

Mr. GREENWOOD. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman have any more questions?

Mr. GEER. Does this prohibit dating bureaus that advertise and receive a fee?

Mr. GREENWOOD. That advertise what?

Mr. GEER. That advertise for young people to meet.

Mr. GREENWOOD. Mr. Speaker, I refuse to answer that question because it might incriminate me.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is within his rights.

Mr. GEER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill what is the purpose and what prompted the initiation of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Wyoming Mr. Greenwood desire to be recognized?

Mr. GREENWOOD. No. Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GEER. I realize I left myself wide open by opposing this bill.

I read in an ad last winter. The ad read something like this: "Desire company of young lady in trip to Florida."

I do not know who sponsored or who originated the ad; it was in the personal ads. I do not know what the idea was. They evidently desired a young lady to go with them to Florida.

But the point I wish to bring out is that in personal ads as they are in the papers today there is no restriction.

When I was in Atlanta, Georgia, during the war, I read an ad which said: "Johnny meet me at the post office tonight at 9:00 o'clock," signed "M. G."

I was on my way to Birmingham, Alabama, and since my name was not Johnny, I went on to Birmingham.

In Birmingham I read in the paper: "Johnny meet me at the post office at 9:00 o'clock," signed "M. G."

That was during the war and it got me a little bit worried. I went to the post office at 9:00 o'clock and I did not see any M. G. or Johnny.

I originally wanted to present a bill here this year to restrict, in some way, personal ads. I thought a lot of subversive activity could be carried on by them. I thought a lot of perverse activity could be carried on. I asked about it in the various newspapers offices and the answer was that the FBI and other investigative organizations are very effective in watching these ads; that for every time they make it possible to commit a crime they also make it possible to get the names and addresses and all the investigative material that ordinarily would not be available.

For that reason, after looking it over, I felt—and having been an investigating agent during the war myself—that there was something to their argument. I have talked to FBI men also and they would be against any such action.

Here we have something that is supposed to stop ads on matrimonial bureaus. In the first place I think it is straining at a gnat and swallowing a camel. If I am correct the purpose or the origination of this came from somebody who was met somebody who killed them. That has happened I think without the necessity of a matrimonial bureau.

If you are going to outlaw an organization or a set-up which is definitely intended for lonely people—evidently there are many lonely people, I do not think there are any in this House, but these organizations evidently thrive—I think that we are stretching things too far. Let us say we are locking one door in the house and leaving all the other doors open.

I think there is need for some kind of legislation where newspapers are used indiscriminately and certain things happen as a result of that in ads, in contacts, between people for immoral un-American purposes. But to outlaw this particular thing, when people do want to meet each other, they are going to meet each other.

I think you will find it a lot easier to locate a person if he is registered with a matrimonial bureau than if he picks somebody up at a bus stop and marries them shortly thereafter. I recommend strongly that we not be a part of a bill which is merely outlawing one particular agency for no particular purpose that I can see.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I had thought that I was probably the only one that was going to speak in opposition to this bill.

I have formed the same conclusion, that the intent behind the bill was to avoid situations that happened similar to the lonely hearts murder or something like that. Those situations are out of the ordinary. They do not happen in many cases.

These matrimonial bureaus to some people are very necessary. For some people that is the only way they can arrange for marriage. I feel that to pass a bill such as this in a country such as this would be absolutely un-American.

I therefore ask that the Members vote this bill down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 525, as follows:

An Act to further amend Section 2 of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred ninety-five (P. L. 275) entitled "An act dividing the cities of this State into three classes with respect to their population and designating the mode of ascertaining and changing the classification thereof in accordance therewith" by providing for the regression in classification of cities upon their decrease in population The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section 2 of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred ninety-five (P. L. 275) entitled "An act dividing the cities of this State into three classes with respect to their population and redesigning the mode of ascertaining and changing the classification thereof in accordance therewith" as amended by the act approved the ninth day of March one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 18) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 2 The classification of said cities respectively to determine whether they shall advance in classification shall be ascertained and fixed by reference to their population according to the last preceding United States census and whenever it shall appear by any such census that any city of the second second A or third class has attained a population entitling it to an advance in classification as herein prescribed it shall be the duty of the Governor under the great seal of this Commonwealth to certify the fact accordingly which certificate shall be entered at large upon the minutes of the councils of such city and recorded in the office for recording the deeds of the proper county

The classification of said cities respectively to determine whether they shall regress in classification shall be ascertained and fixed by reference to the last two preceding United States decennial censuses and whenever it shall appear by both of such censuses that any city of the first second or second A class has decreased in population below the minimum population figures prescribed for its current classification it shall be the duty of the Governor under the great seal of the Commonwealth to certify the fact accordingly which certificate shall be entered at large upon the minutes of the councils of such city and recorded in the office for recording the deeds of the proper county

It is the intent of the preceding paragraph that the classification of any city of the first second and second class A shall not be changed because its population was below the minimum figure for its class at the time of one United States decennial census because it is recognized that a change in the form of a municipal government is attended by certain expense and hardship and such change should not be occasioned by a temporary fluctuation in population but rather only after it is demonstrated by two censuses that the population of a city has remained below the minimum figure of its class for at least a decade

At the municipal election occurring not less than one month after the date of such certificate the proper officers shall be elected to which the said city will become entitled under the change in classification and upon the first Monday of April next ensuing the terms of all officers of said city then in office whose offices are superseded by reason thereof shall cease and determine and the city government shall be duly organized and shall thereafter be controlled and regulated by the laws of this Commonwealth applicable to the same under the classification hereby fixed and appointed

Until otherwise provided by law cities of the second class A shall continue to be governed and shall have all the powers privileges and prerogatives now provided by the laws of the Commonwealth relating to cities of the second class

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the salary beneficiaries of this measure having had abundant opportunity to contemplate the enormity of their offense in coupling a salary increase at the tail end of an essential bill, should perhaps be released from their protracted perigatory and given the opportunity to attend to their regular business, since it will no longer be necessary to ride herd in this Chamber awaiting the hour of decision as far as this House is concerned.

Senate Bill 721 is a measure that should be passed. However, it would be very unfortunate indeed if this House accepted the format of this bill as a precedent. It is a cardinal offense against sound legislation to couple a salary increase with a desirable measure and come into this House with a pistol at the head of the Members, compelling acquiescence in the salary provisions of a bill.

And so we are withdrawing our objections to the consideration of this bill, and we hope that no other department will be guilty of securing salary increases in this manner.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. GREER and HARVEY A. MOORE offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, July 31, 1951.

George H. Bicker was born on August 20, 1880 near Cabot, Pennsylvania, on a farm that he and his wife owned at the time of his death on June 21 of this year. Except for a very few years, while his parents Herman Louis and Frederica Beinecke Bicker operated a grocery business in old Allegheny, now the City of Pittsburgh, he lived his entire life on that farm.

He loved his farm and the rich reward of farm life, the soul satisfying pleasure of working with God. But more important he loved people and his community, and he loved serving them. He found a perfect partner in Pauline Gundlach, a school teacher possessed of the same ideals. They were married on November 16, 1910 and spent the next 41 years of their life working together for their community and for the family of seven children which they reared.

George Bicker was a member of Winfield Grange 1105 for over 50 years. He was a director of Keystone Grange Exchange for many years and Pomona Master of Butler County two terms. He was a member of the loan committee of Butler Productive Credit since its organization in 1933. He served as Justice of the Peace in Winfield Township for 30 years succeeding his father who held that post from 1904.

In 1929 George Bicker was elected to the House of Representatives. He was reelected in 1931. His years of experience in serving the people of his community thus were used to serve his State. His wise counsel and intimate knowledge of the affairs of rural communities were of tremendous aid to the General Assembly in adopting sound legislation, which has remained as a monument to him; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives this day, take note of the great loss suffered by the people of Butler County, and the people of Pennsylvania, in the passing of George Bicker. He was the solid fundamental type of citizen who serve as the keystone in our arch of liberty;

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives extend their individual sympathy to the wife and family of George Bicker and commend them his life as a guiding light for their own, and everyone who would serve God; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Mrs. Pauline Bicker, Cabot, Pennsylvania.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the House a former Member, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Honorable Benjamin L. Long.

RESOLUTION

Mr. VAN SANT offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL NO. 245.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate insists on its nonconcurrence in the amendments made and insisted upon by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill No. 245, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsection (a) of section 2 of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred ninety-five (P. L. 408) entitled as amended "A supplement to the twenty-fourth section of an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation approved the seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine' approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine amending the twenty-fourth section by providing for the payment by the State Treasurer of the two per centum tax on premiums paid by foreign fire insurance companies to the treasurers of the several cities towns townships and boroughs within this commonwealth" by providing for the return of funds if not paid over within a certain time by the political subdivisions for auditing the fund and accounts receiving disbursements by the auditors of the political subdivisions and restricting payments to firemen and their dependents

And has appointed Messrs. Wade, Letzler and Stiefel a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (If the House of Representatives shall appoint such committee) on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 245 and that a Committee of Conference be appointed.

The motion was agreed to.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 245

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee of Conference on said bill, Messrs. Stimmel, Clarence E. Moore and Breth.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. PETROSKY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, during my travels from home to Harrisburg and from Harrisburg back home I have been approached many times by people back home who seem to be thoroughly disgusted with this long session that we are now in. It seems to me that we are continuing to lag in the expediting of necessary legislation and taking care of the business at hand and then going home.

The people of the Commonwealth are waiting to see what we do; waiting for us to close the books so that they can return to their normal routine of business or private lives knowing what they are going to be faced with in the next biennium.

Now it seems to me,—and this is only my opinion,—that the reason for this lagging session is the fact that the flat income tax bill has not passed in the Senate. My personal observation, Mr. Speaker, is that I do not believe that the bill will be passed by the Senate, but that is not for me to say.

However, the Governor has had his answer. If the last primary election is to serve as any barometer, which I feel that it does, for on two occasions our Governor has reprimanded a gentleman whose name appeared on a primary ballot and after being reprimanded for taking a position in favor of the rank and file of the people, not only of the Democratic party but also of the Republican party, the gentleman won with a great and tremendous majority the office which he sought at that election.

I do not believe that we ought to lag here in the House. I am going to attend every session that is called in the Assembly. I am going to move as one person, that we enact or consider all the necessary legislation that is to be considered; enact new tax legislation in the event the Governor intends to give the full provisions to the education program of House Bills 333 and 334 and if he intends to give additional health and welfare services to the people of the Commonwealth, although my initial position of not needing any taxes was correct in accord with the budget, and I still maintain that position. I say if we enact legislation and he signs it to render these additional services, certainly we will need more money. Certainly we should sit right down to a discussion of some new type of tax based on the ability to pay, pass it, give the additional finances to the Governor, pass the other necessary legislation that we have here, and then adjourn the session and go home.

I reiterate, the responsibility lies on the shoulders of the Republican party and its members in the House of Representatives, in this lower house to recognize the facts and face them. The blame for this long do-nothing session rests solely with the Republican membership of this lower House. I shall endeavor to insist for full sessions and for sessions which will act upon a program seeking the earliest possible adjournment date. Notwithstanding the membership absent from their seats, it seems to me there was the passage of some very important legislation here in the House at yesterday's session, and action and consideration on that legislation with a very convenient amount of absences that without question did not benefit the people of Pennsylvania, but benefited certain vested interests.

The fiscal program, that was so strongly advocated by the Chamber of Commerce, and the Pennsylvania Manufacturer's Association has failed. I say that the facts should be recognized, that we should institute a people's program on the financial status of the Commonwealth, pass that program as I stated earlier, on the ability to pay, quit this session and go home.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I cannot say that I agree with the gentleman to any extent.

I believe most of the things he said have been his personal opinion. I hope I understood him right when he admitted that we do need extra money. I think he made that statement.

I cannot agree with him when he says we are a do-nothing Legislature. We in the House do not come in that category. We have given the people of Pennsylvania many of the things they have asked for. We have given them FEPC; we passed yesterday, whether he thinks so or not, a good labor program that labor does not feel too badly about. Believe me when I say that labor is a happy group today.

We have also passed for the teachers Bills 333 and 334, which has been a good program. So we cannot say that we are a do-nothing Legislature.

The gentleman made a statement about certain individuals that won in campaigns. I do not know to whom he is referring, but I can also make the statement that there were certain other individuals in other counties who had the courage of their convictions and stand here in this House and vote for taxes because the people wanted things, and they won by overwhelming majorities. So I do not think that is a criterion because an individual won. Anybody can stand up and not vote for taxes; it is a popular thing to do; anybody can get votes on that basis. It does not take people with ability not to vote for taxes and win. That is a popular issue.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. PETROSKY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, for the purpose of the record, I did say that the Governor would need more money to carry out the fiscal program provided the full import of the House bills that were passed in the House and now reside in the Senate namely House Bills 333 and 334, were passed finally and were signed by the Governor. If the additional appropriations for the health and welfare programs were passed and signed by the Governor, I say that he will need more taxes. I know that the people of Pennsylvania do not begrudge him more taxes, but certainly only will submit to taxes that are based on the ability to pay, and not upon a fiscal program as advocated by the Governor.

In the event that program was instituted,—and the mechanics of the legislative body are not too well known by the lay public—you know and I know that the educational program with the insistence of the administration could be moved finally in the Senate and could be signed by the Governor, thereby showing his good faith in that program rather than we just passing things over to the Senate in order to hold a club over their heads to get them to pass the flat income tax bill.

RESOLUTION No. 73.

In the House of Representatives, August 1, 1951.

The Lehigh Art Alliance exhibition entitled "Portrait of a Free Press," sponsored by the Call-Chronicle newspapers of Allentown, Pennsylvania is currently on display in the State Museum.

This exhibition embraces paintings and compositions each of which has as its theme or subject matter some phase of the free "press," i.e., the American newspaper industry. This limitation of subject matter was no handicap to the participating artists, as even a casual viewing proves, for the effect of the entire exhibition is colorful and refreshing.

Altogether, this exhibition is of benefit to the public, which has an opportunity to see what our artists can do with such a theme; to the participating artists who have the chance to display their talents; and to the sponsoring newspapers, for the credit such a success reflects on them, and on the American newspaper industry of which they are a part; now therefore be it

Resolved, (by the House of Representatives), That we hereby congratulate the Lehigh Art Alliance and the sponsoring Call-Chronicle newspapers of Allentown for their combined efforts in producing and exhibiting to the public the excellent art collection "Portrait of a Free Press," which expounds one of America's basic freedoms in a novel and imaginative form, and we urge all Pennsylvanians not to miss the opportunity to see the same; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Lehigh Art Alliance and the Call-Chronicle newspapers of Allentown.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. WATERHOUSE asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

RESOLUTION

THANKS EXTENDED

Messrs. WATERHOUSE, WESCOTT and READINGER offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 6, 1951.

Behind the brilliant facade of any successful public celebration lie the detailed planning and the earnest contribution of many groups who seldom come to the attention and never receive the plaudits of the onlooking crowd.

Not the least conspicuous among these supporting groups at the recent one hundred and seventy-fifth anniversary of the Proclamation of the Declaration of Independence were the Pennsylvania State Police, under the supervision of Major William Hoffman and Captain Arthur Oldham, and the Philadelphia Highway Patrol, under the direction of Inspector John Rosansky.

Both organizations performed excellent service in conveying distinguished visitors and dignitaries from place to place in Philadelphia during the period of celebration, July 3rd and 4th, 1951.

Their courtesy—unwailing on every occasion—their dependability—under the most trying circumstances, their skill and knowledge concerning all phases of transportation contributed greatly to the smooth and effective commemoration of one of the most significant events in American history. "A stitch in time saves nine" is an ancient saw extolling the virtues of a minute, infinitesimal thing—a stitch. Similarly, were it not for the rapid and the flawless transportation facilities that were always immediately available during the period of celebration the magnificent spectacle that delighted thousands of visitors at the shrine of liberty might well have been obscured or even eclipsed; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House express its grateful thanks to the Pennsylvania State Police and to the Philadelphia Highway Patrol for the highly commendable manner in which they solved all transportation difficulties incident to the one hundred and seventy-fifth anniversary of the Declaration of Independence; and be it further

Resolved, That the House be specially appreciative of the skillful executive direction of Major Hoffman, Captain Oldham, and Inspector Rosansky and the splendid co-operative response by their subordinates to the transportation problems arising from the celebration of the one hundred and seventy-fifth anniversary of the Proclamation of the Declaration of Independence.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. McGEE and ROSE offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 6, 1951.

Love has fruitlessly pursued Morris Rosen through a life of activity and adventure. For elusive Morris, ever-cautious and retiring, had escaped the artful toils of a pervasive love until he chanced to look upon the fair face of Silvia Summers. Indifference to romance, resolutions on single blessedness, cynicism about marriage—bed in utter confusion from his mind when he first surveyed the endearing charms and the entrancing beauty of Silvia.

His work at the Daroff Clothing Company became his daily happiness as he cut up the fabric into useful garments within the sight of the lovely Silvia and under the spell of their community of interest and purpose.

On July 1, 1951, Rabbi Mathews S. Rosen officially consecrated the martial merger of Morris and Silvia, who amidst the grandeur of the Canadian Rockies and the majestic beauty of Lake Louise began a honeymoon that will reach throughout life itself, therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives extend to the Honorable Morris Rosen and his wife Silvia its brightest greetings on the occasion of their recent marriage and its sincerest hope that conjugal felicity and domestic bliss will color and characterize their intimate association unto eternity.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. DOWLING from the Committee on Judiciary, reported as amended, House Bill No. 1559, entitled:

An Act providing that chattel mortgage and conditional sale contracts filed in the prothonotary's office shall be surrendered upon satisfaction of record, to the person causing such satisfaction.

Mr. BOMBERGER from the Committee on Motor Vehicles, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1170, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsection (a) of Section 1201 of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," by authorizing the bringing of informations for violations of the summary provisions of this act occurring on a highway dividing two municipalities before the nearest available magistrate in either one of said municipalities.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, every now and then a great many things appear in the papers that make headlines and other times little interesting articles appear that have a little humor to them. There was a humorous story printed in this morning's Inquirer by that night-riding newspaper reporter, Mr. Miller. I think most of us know Joe, and last night about midnight, or somewhere in that time of the night, Mr. Neff and myself, after being up in my office for a couple of hours, started to walk down the steps of the main entrance to the Capitol, and we saw a little figure come flying up the plaza and there out of breath and all excited, with his glasses in his hand, was our good friend, Joe, and he said, "I caught you this time." Well, for the moment I was afraid I had been caught, because not all of us say what we do at night. There are some things I have done at night that I would not want to be caught at. Anyway, the gentleman from the newspaper said, "You were just over in the Governor's office." I said, "Thanks for the compliment, but don't you have the wrong Senators?" He said, "No, I know you were there because I saw your hat and Senator Neff's hat."

Mr. President, it reminded me of the story I read in one of the books on Abraham Lincoln. It seemed that Abraham Lincoln once had a very important case, and the only bit of evidence in controversy was the evidence of a hat and the ownership of this hat, and Abe Lincoln took the hat and in a side voice, loud enough for the witness to hear, kept looking at the hat and he would pronounce under his breath, but loud enough for the right person to hear, the initials. He would say, "A. B., A. B." Finally, about five minutes later he turned suddenly to the witness and said, "What were the initials in the hat?" The witness said, "A. B." Abe Lincoln took the hat and presented it to the jury, and there were no initials in it. Last night I said to Joe, "How did you know it was my hat?" He said, "I looked at the initials."

Now, Mr. President, the Grand Jury here, the newspaperman on the jury, look at the initials, will you? Needless to say, there are no initials in the hat, Mr. President, and so this morning I discovered that my colleague, my Whip, wears the same kind of a hat, and I looked but there are no initials in his hat either. So, I do not think you were at the Governor's office. At least if you were, you did not tell me.

Now, Mr. President, it does not matter except in this sense. In the last days of the Session of the Legislature there are some very important measures that have come up and some that must come up yet. The one thing that we must have, we must have faith and trust in each other. The Members on this side and the Members on the other side must have some reliance upon each other and upon each other's integrity and upon their word. I do not mind the newspapermen having a little fun. That is all right with me, but I assure Joe Miller, and anyone that writes for the newspaper fraternity, that if they want to ask me, if they want to ask me any questions as to where I was last night, as long as they do not ask me what I was doing, I will tell them. Thank you.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The remarks of the gentleman will be noted upon the record.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise to a point of inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, will state his point of inquiry.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to know if the gentleman is apologizing for being in the Governor's office?

Mr. President, while he is reminiscing about where he is at night and telling about Abraham Lincoln, I wonder if he remembers some years ago when Colgate University had the national champion football team that missed out on the Rose Bowl. They were known as the undefeated, unscored on, uninvited.

Mr. DENT. The Majority Floor Leader has our sympathy.

RECESS

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until three o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

URGING THE REDUCTION IN THE SPEED LIMIT ON THE PENNSYLVANIA TURNPIKE

Mr. HOLLAND offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Highways:

In the Senate, August 7, 1951.

The Pennsylvania Turnpike was thoughtfully conceived not only as a convenience and as a boom to motorists in their trans-State auto trips, but especially as a safety precaution and instrumentality against the banked curves, the rail and bus crossings, the steep inclines, and the intersections with crossroads that abound in a heavily traveled section of the country.

It is truly regrettable and not entirely understandable why—in spite of the most recent engineering advances and precautions that have been incorporated into the design and the execution of the Turnpike—an increasing number of fatalities resulting from automobile accidents is defeating the very purpose for which the road was laid and is making a mockery of the prudent foresight and accomplishments of our most effective, safety-conscious engineers.

The obvious answer is speed—the maniacal speed of the irrational and carefree tourist and the calloused indifferent speed of the blasé and insensate truck driver. Human indifference and carelessness in thus nullifying the finest engineering techniques and practices indicate an urgency for the consideration and the application of remedial principles at once; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House concur), That the maximum allowable speed by vehicles operated on the highways under the supervision and control of the Turnpike Commission be lowered to sixty miles an hour; and be it further

Resolved, That trucks and vehicles other than touring cars be prohibited from passing vehicles moving in the same direction, unless adequate warning be given; and be it further

Resolved, That trucks on the Turnpike be required to maintain safe operating distances between one another; and be it further

Resolved, That trucks be prohibited from moving at excessive speeds on hills and declines; and be it further

Resolved, That the highways under the supervision and control of the Turnpike Commission be adequately and effectively patrolled at all times; and be it further

Resolved, That the aforesaid modification of the maximum speed and other admonitory directions be printed on the tickets tendered upon entering the Turnpike.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MAHANY, from the Committee on State Government, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 789, entitled:

An Act to further amend clause (b) of Section 507 and clause (c) of Section 2403 of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," by making special provision for the purchase of coal for use in any State hospital or any other State institution.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I think the Senate has reached that stage where the stalemate is beginning to tell upon all of us. As I see it, there are honest differences of opinion. I would suggest to the Senate that perhaps if we recessed for a period of three or four weeks, or the necessary time that is needed to correlate our thoughts and to get the information, the practical factual information from the Auditor General's Department, the Treasury Department will have had at least three months of tax collections and perhaps we can then decide between us, or resolve rather, the differences between the estimates given by Doctor Logan and the estimates that some of the Senators, including myself, have given, and determine definitely the amount of money that the Legislature is going to appropriate over the budget, decide how much money is really needed to carry the governmental services forward for this biennium, and then come back with a fresh start, with a calmer and a more poised viewpoint of the situation, and I do sincerely believe that at that time, within a short period we can resolve this Session of the Legislature and adjourn sine die.

Mr. President, all of us agree it would be a serious mistake to attempt a sine die adjournment under the present conditions, but I for one, speaking for those Members that I have talked to on our side of the Senate, think that a recess is the proper method by which we can accomplish the desired end. The action of the Committee on Finance today leaves no doubt in the minds of most of us that the income tax, for all intents and purposes, is dead. Most of us realize, too, at this stage, with the legislation that is upon the books and that which is in the process of being passed, that new and additional revenues may be required, and, therefore, with the factual accounting for three months tax collections, we can arrive at a more practical figure on what the revenues will amount to in the next two years.

Mr. President, I think that the proper thing for this Senate to do would be to recess until the week following Labor Day, which would give the departments plenty of time to gather the figures, will give the Members of the General Assembly plenty of time to go home and talk to their constituents, and to find in their conversations, perhaps, a solution that seems to have gotten beyond the limits of our own abilities to solve. I for one have always believed that in the end the people know best. I do not hesitate to say that I will go back and search for guidance, because the problem is one that seems to have the Membership of the Senate stumped. I would suggest in all sincerity to the Members of the Senate that they consider a recess at this time.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I want to say to the gentleman from Westmoreland that the matter of a recess has already been discussed, and it was the consensus of opinion of the Majority that the matter probably could be solved more expeditiously if the Senate would remain in Session. The House has already committed itself to a course of conduct which requires them to be here next week, and in the light of the action taken by the Finance Committee of the Senate today, perhaps a clearer course of conduct might be charted by the group who are desirous of solving the problem to the best interests of the people of the Commonwealth.

Mr. President, I therefore want to say to my distinguished colleague from Westmoreland that at this point it is the determination of the Majority that there will be no recess.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

BILL RE-REFERRED

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I am about to make a motion, but before doing so I would like to make a brief statement.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, may proceed.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, this morning the Democratic Members of the Senate met in Caucus in regard to the Committee on Finance and while we were out, naturally there were no Democrats at the meeting on Local Government at that time, and House Bill No. 587 was reported out. This was done once before, Mr. President, and the bill was recommitted.

MOTION THAT HOUSE BILL No. 587 BE RECOMMITTED

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 587, on first reading, entitled:

An Act providing a method for the reestablishment of townships of the first class from any city to which they have been annexed and regulating the proceedings pertaining thereto and reestablishing the same as separate school districts be recommitted to the Committee on Local Government

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I must say in deference to the gentleman from Allegheny, of course, I am not a Member of the Committee on Local Government and naturally I have no information as to what transpired there. I think it would be in keeping if the gentleman would make his motion Monday when we have a full Senate and when the matter can be discussed. The bill then can be handled properly. It will then be on the Calendar and be before us squarely for action.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, what I am objecting to is the system that was used today to put the bill on the Calendar as it is now. My motion is to recommit the bill today.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I will therefore have to ask the gentlemen of the Senate to vote the motion down.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, before the Members of the Senate vote on this motion, I wish they would take time and read that bill. That is one of the reasons I suggested a recess. We are now beginning to get to the point in this Legislative Session where punitive legislation is taking preference. This bill is a piece of unsound legislation with nothing but political implications in it. It has no business on the Calendar at any Session of the Legislature, and especially at this late date. I do not think we will ever work out any situation here that is serious if we are going to take this type of legislation and put it on the legislative books.

Mr. President, I ask for a roll call and ask the decent Members of the Senate to send House Bill No. 587 back to committee.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, once more we are involved in the delightful process of discussing a bill and acting on a bill that is not properly before us. We are not discussing the merits of the bill. I am merely suggesting to the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, who made the motion, that time is of the essence, and perhaps it would be better when the bill is before us to make such a motion. Now, the bill was reported from committee. As I explained very carefully to the gentleman, I am not a member of the committee and therefore cannot speak as to what happened in committee. May I say to him in all seriousness, it is not a question of the merits of the bill. It will be on Monday's First Reading Calendar, and I say to the gentleman, in all seriousness, the time to consider it is then. Now, it is not being read for the first time and the status of the bill will not be changed one iota between now and Monday afternoon when the Senate reconvenes. Due to the fact that the bill was reported from committee, the gentleman leaves me no other alternative but to ask the Members of the Senate to vote against the motion, in order to preserve the integrity of the Committee until the bill is properly before us. Now, due to what happened last week, I am in a rather embarrassing position. I would like to point out to the gentleman that under the rules of the Senate you cannot properly consider a bill unless it is before us. Now, repeatedly that same question has been raised on the Majority side when the printer is a little late, and I want to say to the gentleman that I do not want to start becoming technical in August, and I would seriously suggest to the gentleman that he permit our action on this bill to be deferred until Monday when it is properly before the Senate.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I thought there would be a time when I would have the opportunity of answering Senator Walker. The bill is not before us and only last week the same procedure took place on Doctor Chapman's bill. It came out of committee and the gentleman from Allegheny rose in place and made a motion to send it back. This is exactly the same procedure right now, identically.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, that is correct. I am not raising the question of parliamentary procedure. I refuse to raise that question. I am not raising the question of parliamentary procedure, and I said very carefully that I am embarrassed because of what happened last week, and, therefore, I will not raise the question of parliamentary procedure. Is that clear?

Mr. HALUSKA. Fine.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I agree with Senator Walker. The bill is not properly before us.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The only thing before the Senate is the matter of the roll call on the motion to recommit.

Mr. FREED. Mr. President, in re-reporting that bill out and having been handed to me, I wish to call attention to a few of the Democratic Members that they were coming in the door or were better than twenty minutes late in that particular meeting, and that it was definitely held up for those twenty minutes to see if more were coming into that particular meeting, and it was definitely in order the way it was reported out.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I apologize for interrupting the roll call, but while the roll call is being called may I suggest that we have a tight and slow roll call. I would not want any Member of the Senate inadvertently put on this roll call who might not be on the floor at the time the roll is called.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DENT and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—13

Barr,	Holland,	McMenamin,	Silvert,
Byrne,	Lane,	Neff,	Stiefel,
Dent,	McGinnis,	Ruth,	Yosko,
Haluska,

NAYS—24

Bliss,	Kephart,	Peelor,	Wagner,
Chapman,	Kessler,	Probert,	Walker,
Crowe,	Letzler,	Robinson,	Watkins,
Diehm,	Mahany,	Stevenson,	Wolfe,
Fleming,	McPherson, Jr.,	Taylor,	Wood,
Freed	Meade,	Wade,	Hare,
			Presiding Officer

So the question was determined in the negative.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The bill will appear on the First Reading Calendar.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, hearing the answer to Senator Dent by Senator Walker, he says the determination of the Majority side was that we would not recess. I gathered only one thing from that, that you do not want cooperation on our tax program from the Members of the Minority Party. Therefore, I think that anyone on this side should be excused from reporting to the Senate until the Republicans have a tax program, because they do not want our cooperation. The Majority Leader has said the determination of the problem is theirs, and they will see it through.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, if my distinguished colleague from Allegheny will have the Official Reporter read back what I said, he will find that nowhere directly or indirectly did I say anything about not wanting the cooperation or not welcoming the cooperation of the Minority in the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, yield for a moment? I desire to interrogate him.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Senator Walker, do you remember saying, "It is the determination of the Majority?"

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I again refer the gentleman, to what I said was the determination of the Majority. I would invite the gentleman to tell me where in the phraseology that he has just quoted is there any suggestion directly or indirectly that I have refused or do not seek or we, if I may use the Lindbergh plural, and I, therefore, ask the gentleman from Allegheny, when I say we have decided that there will be no recess, where in that remark is there a suggestion that we do not seek or we have intention of seeking or that we refuse to accept the cooperation of the Minority? I think, Mr. President, the gentleman's suggestion is father of the thought.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LANE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I listened to the statement by the Majority Leader and took it that they did not want the cooperation of the Minority. Today in the Finance Committee meeting I think I made a statement that we of the Minority were willing to cooperate with the Majority in solving the budgetary problems of the Commonwealth. We made suggestions there whereby this should be a joint meeting between the House Ways and Means Committee and the Finance Committee of the Senate. We have signified that willingness on many occasions. The only thing that has disturbed me about this Session is the fact that the newspapers have not played up our willingness to cooperate with the Majority Party in this State. I say that we of the Minority have a responsibility. I think that we have a responsibility to the citizenry of this Commonwealth in solving these budgetary problems, and if the Majority Party will invite us to cooperate with them, we will sit down and do the job right.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I again would like to suggest to my distinguished colleagues that they take a look at the subject matter which was under discussion. Senator Dent was discussing a recess. I said very carefully that we on the Majority side determined at this time that there would be no recess.

Now, Mr. President, if by some quirk of the English language they can twist that into the determination that they are now expressing, that we are rejecting any cooperation or harmony, that they have gone far beyond the intent of the words. The subject matter under discussion with the Minority Leader was the question of a recess and I said very carefully we have decided there will be no recess. Nowhere in the discussion, nowhere in my remarks have I directly or indirectly mentioned the word "tax," and the implication placed upon it by the Senator from Washington or my distinguished friend and colleague from Pittsburgh is entirely their own interpretation. As to their disappointment over the promise given their position by the members of the press, I want to say, Mr. President, that is their hard luck, too.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, if the gentleman from Allegheny would only remember that it is he and he alone that has had us in this mess for the last eight months.

COMMUNICATION AND BILL LAID ON TABLE

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication from the Governor together with the bill be laid on the table.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. ROYER and ANDREWS.

HOUSE BILL No. 1654.

An Act to provide for the expenses of the Joint State Government Commission of the General Assembly for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, someone has said that politics and statesmanship involve the solution or procedure along the lines of the possible. And so when any group faces what seems to be an impossible situation there is a need for a different approach than the approach that seems to be barred by factors that cannot be removed.

I have asked the Legislative Reference Bureau to prepare a bill amending the Administrative Code to provide that the General Assembly can suggest to the Governor the preparation of an annual budget. If the Governor approves, the General Assembly can then proceed to frame an annual budget.

The measure also provides that the Governor can suggest to the General Assembly the preparation of an annual budget, and if the General Assembly approves, he can then proceed to frame an annual budget.

It would seem to me that this is the common sense approach to the problems that have arisen. We all know the extent to which the present situation has become befogged by misunderstandings, personalities, factionalism, possible stubbornness and at least a trace here and there of sheer stupidity.

An annual session next year for the purpose of dealing with fiscal problems and other matters that arise will certainly be no more expensive than the prolonging of the present session or the convening of a special session after this General Assembly has adjourned sine die; the convening of a special session for the purpose of proceeding exactly from the point where we laid down the job when we adjourned sine die.

Republican Senators have framed what they termed an alternative tax program, a possible substitute for the income tax proposal which is the cause of the present dead-lock. I am quite convinced that if the features of the program which the Republican Senators have framed were submitted to this House under majority party sponsorship, that at least some of the provisions in that program would be acceptable to at least a considerable number of the minority Members of this chamber.

The Minority, with open minds concerning the features of a substitute alternative tax program, will not be a party,—we want the people of this Commonwealth to understand, that we will not be a party to the sabotaging of essential activities of this Commonwealth on behalf of the schools, public health and other equally important matters purely as a result of an internecine political quarrel. We most emphatically resent any imputation that we vote for appropriations and refuse to accept a reasonable responsibility in providing the money that we vote.

We concede, and we have continually conceded on this side of the House that the estimates in the Governor's budget did not accurately reflect the needs of the Commonwealth. It has been my position that there was a need for more money than the Governor in his budget said he needed, and we are ready and willing to consider the proposals of a tax program designed to finance the needs which we admit exist.

We have taken the position that as far as our votes can stop it, we will not permit the Executive to thrust down the legislative throat of this chamber, or of the other chamber, a particular tax program, and we take that position particularly in view of the fact that while the Executive apparently as far as the majority membership in this House is concerned, takes the immovable position that it must be income tax or nothing, in public declarations, statements made in the press, the Executive has been represented as saying that he is willing to accept a tax program formulated by the General Assembly.

My proposal is, first, that the Administrative Code be amended to make it possible for the General Assembly to prepare an annual budget. That we then prepare an annual budget; that we finance the Commonwealth for the current fiscal year, and then that we meet at a proper time in the coming year for the purpose of financing the remaining year of the biennium.

That is logical, it is sensible, it gets us out of the present situation with some semblance of dignity, and it ends apparently a quarrel seated in the other chamber which it seems impossible for either party to resolve. They burned too many bridges to go back apparently, and so in view of the fact that politics is the art of the possible, it is a part of wisdom to proceed along the lines that it is possible. So for that reason we will offer these measures amending the Administrative Code when the House convenes next Monday.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I think we on this side of the House can assure the gentleman that his proposal will be given every consideration. But I would like to remaind him that we have no assurance yet that the situation is quite as desparate as he pictures it, that is, no official assurance.

I would also like to say that we in the House as the majority party have accepted the challenge that there is a need for new money and that there has been a need for new money. I am glad to hear the gentleman say that he does too. I know that he has made that remark in the past. We have accepted the challenge and we have passed the tax program on the basis of that challenge. What the other body of the Legislature does is at this time still their business, although I hope they will accept the challenge and recognize what the gentleman now recognizes, that there is a need for new money and that someone has to pay the bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I simply desire to remind the Majority Leader that regarding the need for new money I am simply repeating now what I said months ago, and it is not a case of belated recognition of the Commonwealth's fiscal needs.

Long ago, months ago, as the record will show, we took the position on the floor of this House that the Governor's budget short-changed the schools, that the Governor's budget short-changed mental health, and that the Governor's budget short-changed many other essential activities. And I repeat that the record will show that that was our position.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, for the gentleman's information, I did not wish to infer that he had never admitted that; he did. I wish to infer that while we in this House admitted it, it took a long while on the part of some individuals in the other body to admit it, and I think up to this date they do not even recognize the responsibility of that very thing.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. GOODLING asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the membership of this House received a circular letter in their mail boxes today or yesterday with a copy of a certain telegram enclosed. As a member of the organization sending the communication, I want the record to show quite clearly that I resent some of the implications contained in that letter.

In the second paragraph of this letter the word "malodorous" is used. As far as I know there is nothing ill-smelling about this particular bill that we have just passed on second reading.

In the same sentence a little later on, the words "sinister implications" are used. Now Mr. Webster says that sinister means: wrong, dishonest and corrupt. I would like the record to show that so far as I know, as one of the sponsors of this bill, there is nothing wrong about it, there is nothing sinister about it, there is nothing dishonest about it, there is nothing corrupt about it.

Further on in the letter the writer says: "Industry has been given absolute assurance that the Pennsylvania House of Representatives would vote to repeal the ban on colored oleo." Now if there is anyone on Capitol Hill that is authorized to make a statement like that which concerns the membership of this House, I would not know who he would be. Certainly there is not anyone authorized to make a statement of that nature.

In another paragraph of the letter he states he is certain that the legislators will not—and this is the part I want to pay strict attention to—"take orders from anyone acting for a mercenary group." As one of the sponsors of this bill, I want to say that it was prepared in good faith, there was absolutely no collusion; it was brought to the floor of this House because of a demand from the general public and not from any mercenary group.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from York should not be unduly exercised by anything the opponents of oleo legislation have to say. That is what they have said for thirty years. That is the kind of stuff they have been putting out to bamboozle the Republican majority in this House.

I am glad at long last that there is evidence of good works meet for repentance, that that the gentlemen on the other side have recognized how malicious, how deceptive the propaganda has been. I cannot express my feeling of, not exactly elation, that at long last there has been the courage to break through the ring that misrepresentation in times past had formed around the majority membership in this House.

BILLS PASSED OVER

There being no objection,
House Bill No. 488, Printer's No. 476, and House Bill No. 682, Printer's No. 801 were passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 718 as follows:

An Act making a deficiency appropriation to aid certain school districts
The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The sum of two hundred seventy thousand dollars ($270,000) is hereby appropriated to the Department of Public Instruction for the payment of the deficiency in the appropriation for the purpose of aiding financially handicapped and distressed school districts in such sums and in such manner as the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine and for defraying the necessary cost for the administration thereof for the balance of the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one and for the succeeding fiscal biennium until the thirtieth day of September one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, May I ask the sponsor to explain just what school districts they are talking about in this particular bill?

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I understand about a hundred school districts in the state of Pennsylvania have applied for this aid. It totals about $270,000. That is what the bill calls for.

Mr. LOVETT. May I further ask the gentleman in what way, or who is responsible or makes the decision in paying this money to these school districts?

Mr. WOOD. The Superintendent of Public Instruction has the final say.

Mr. LOVETT. May I ask if it is entirely in the hands of the Superintendent of Public Instruction?

Mr. WOOD. The Department of Public Instruction, yes. That is my understanding of it.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I noticed in reading over the bill that the Secretary of Public Instruction had the sole jurisdiction in the distribution of this money to distressed school districts. On what grounds and in what way I do not know. I think it is a good bit of power to put into the hands of one individual just to give money where he sees fit and refuse it in other places.

For that reason I do not think this legislation is good unless somebody will explain to me just what rhyme, or reason, or rule or regulation binds the Secretary of Public Instruction in handing out this money to these distressed school districts, because I know in some instances they refused this money to school districts. Unless someone can explain just what happens in this particular bill I do not think it is good legislation.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SCHMIDT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at the election last fall passed an amendment to the Constitution, the purpose of which was to grant to disabled war veterans who were hospitalized the right to cast an absentee ballot.

A situation developed in Allegheny County whereby bed-ridden veterans who were residents of Allegheny County and who were hospitalized at the Veterans Hospital in Aspinwall, which is located in Allegheny County, it was found that they were not covered by this amendment, inasmuch as the amendment provided that the bed-ridden veteran must be outside of the county of which he was a resident.

An appeal was taken to the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County by Mr. Louis Rosenberg, Assistant City Solicitor, in order to obtain this privilege for these veterans. The Court in its decision found that although they would have liked to have granted this permission, the amendment to the Constitution specifically provided that the bedridden veteran must be outside of the county on election day.

In order to clarify this mistake, I am about to introduce a joint resolution on behalf of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Cooper, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Saraff and myself, which would start an amendment to the Constitution that would rectify this error.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. SCHMIDT asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a Joint Resolution to be introduced by him.
